

Federal Programs at a Glance

The Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) was approved and signed into law in December of 2015 as a reauthorization of the 1965 Elementary and Secondary Education Act which established the federal role for K-12 education. ESSA grants federal funding and defines standards for assessment, accountability, educator preparation and much more. Unicoi County receives funding under the following sections of ESSA:

Title I, Part A

The Title I program provides support to local districts to improve teaching and learning for students in high poverty schools. Unicoi County chooses to operate under a school-wide model to improve the educational experience of all students within the school.
